

Dear Warren & Robbie,

Wanted to let you know that I got the magazines – both packages. Thank you very much. They are just what I needed. I also received your very gracious letters. I am so glad you are feeling better, Warren. To be honest, I've missed you. You and Robbie are such a huge part of my life. I can never thank the Father enough for you. Jesus, as my life, and the trust of the gospel the Holy Spirit teaches (2 Timothy 1:14) is a miracle words can never adequately describe. What my Father had in store for this old prisoner is so beyond me. He has indeed chosen the foolish things of this world to confound the wise (Ephesians 3:20). The revelation of Jesus in a human touches people's lives in a way I had no right to expect – it also incites the devil no end. But what did we expect? This is our Father's training.

God is doing wonderful things here. The truth is wherever I go I see Jesus working in ways that never cease to amaze me. I feel like I am the most privileged man on the face of the earth. I know you share that blessing. It's the fellowship of the mystery.

Well, God love you and bless you. If possible, maybe you could send that CD set, "The Gospel of Deliverance" regarding addiction. I am sure I could use it. Also, no, I have not been receiving "The Church in the Home" CDs for probably the last four months and am not sure why.

In any case, I am amply supplied, but will continue to make my needs known. Thank you so very much, as always. I love and treasure you dearly.

In Christ,
Richard Moore

P.S. Warren

I was somewhat surprised at what slipped in to the Gregg Bing article in the LIS (#320). I am thinking it was an oversight or possibly you chose to allow it. My guess is the former. Of course, Gregg Bing is a writer I've been greatly blessed by. I've accumulated quite a bit of material from Grace Bible Church, which I value greatly. But there really is no reason for the confusion. The Greek language in two verses alone makes clear we are no longer in relationship under the influence of the sin nature (Katargeo (Rom.6:6)/Eriergeo) (Eph. 2:2). The problem arises because they do not see there is no human nature. Man was made a living soul. His is why the Lord's teaching has been so strategic in this area in my life. This is almost universal – even among the finest grace teachers of our day. What they actually do not see is 'The Birthing' as a whole body of truth (where nature comes from, man, a living soul, etc.). There is a certain vagueness in their teaching concerning our union with Christ because they are bridging the gap with human reason. With all due respect, to not see the birthing is to fall short of what our Father intends for His children. Well, we will contend for the truth. Be blessed, sir.

Richard.
